52nd Opening Gets Underway With Largest Freshman Class

Rev. Wiley Addresses First Vesper

Speaking on the subject, "Freedom," Rev. Samuel S. Wiley, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, who spoke to A. and T. College students Sunday, October 6 in the first vesper service for this school year, declared, "Young men and women are never free until they give themselves to a cause greater than they."

The program was held in Harrison Auditorium, and music for the service was furnished by the college choir under direction of Prof. Charles Coleman. President F. D. Bluford, who presided, introduced the speaker.

The speaker told the audience, "It is often thought by many that religion is a restrictive agency; but the religion of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, offers freedom. We cannot find freedom except in the life of God. If a man does not find freedom in Christ, the fault is with the man."

For the mid-week devotional exercises, A. and T. students heard Rev. J. W. Tynes, pastor of Providence Baptist Church, of this city, who spoke on "God's Vision of a Man." He pointed out the fact that of all things created by God, man is the only one with personality.

A Nation is not worthy to be saved if, in the hour of its fate, it will not gather up all of its jewels of manhood and life, and go down into the conflict, however bloody and doubtful, resolved on measureless ruin or complete success.

A. & T. Gets Ice Cream Plant

The A. and T. College Dairy Department has recently had added to its facilities a new plant for ice cream making. The plant is equipped with the most modern equipment and is now being operated by Professor C. R. A. Cunningham.

There has also been added an entirely new plant for processing milk and milk products. With these added facilities, the Dairy Department is well equipped to adequately take care of the needs of the college students.

FRESHMAN 1942 JOLLIFICATION

With Mr. Alvin Blount, Jr., President of the Student Council, as master of ceremonies, and Gwendolyn Peterson, Katherine Howard, Roalie Sowell, Lois McGhee, Carolyn Wood, Louise Morris, Johnny Johnson, Walter Hamilton, Theodore Wells and Jethro Hooper assisting him, the Freshmen had a jolly time indeed for two hours and a half on September 18, 1942.

The Freshmen were entertained.

Captain Robert Lee Campbell

By J. Floyd Lovell

Although Captain Campbell is not professor of military science and tactics this year, this fact is not an indication that we have not been cognizant of the meritorious service that he has rendered A. and T. and America. Because we appreciate "Cap's" record of splendid service, I am taking this liberty to give a brief biography of him.

Robert Lee Campbell was

A. & T. OVERRUN WITH FRESHMEN

Almost half of the Student body is represented by the Freshman Class and the enrollment of the College passes 900.

On September 15, over 400 newcomers made their debut on the campus. They came from sixteen states and their interests and ambitions seem to be equally as varied, with the trend being more toward the technical subjects than heretofore.

Dr. Gandy, President Emeritus, Chapel Hour Speaker

September 30, 1942 officially opened the Chapel hour for the ensuing school year, but first remarks should be made concerning the Chapel program on the Monday preceding.

We were honored to have Mr. Gandy, President Emeritus of Virginia State College, with us during that chapel hour, at which time he extended his wishes for our success during the ensuing year and years to come. As we all know, President Emeritus Gandy has been a friend of the institution for many years and has watched its growth and progress.

On our Wednesday morning chapel program, we had as our speaker Judge Hines, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College. Judge Hines made some very interesting and very en-

Judge Hines Speaks At Opening

On Wednesday morning, September 30, at 10 a. m., the faculty, students and friends of A. and T. College observed the formal opening of school for the current year. Judge Charles Hines, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of A. and T. College, was the main speaker. Judge Hines began his address by congratulating the students of the college on their being here. "However," he added, "you are not responsible for your being here." He further impressed on the minds of all the listeners the fact that States have not always been interested in the education of its citizens. Our education has been made possible through much toilsome effort. Therefore, we should use our advantages to the fullest extent. The speaker continued his emphasis on obtaining a thorough education by urging that one should not educate just for the dividends paid in money, but rather for the services that we will give to the world. "For after all," concluded Judge Hines, "Life is a mirrow, reflecting what you do; so give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

Other features on the program were a number of selections very beautifully rendered by the A. and T. A Cappella Choir, under the capable direction of Mr. Coleman; also a few remarks by Colonel Edwards, new military instructor of the ROTC unit at A. and T., and Rev. Greene, a new member added to the Board of Trustees of A. and T. College. President Bluford presided.

Scholarships and Equipment For Ag.

Under the skilled leadership of President F. D. Bluford and excellent direction of Dean J. C. McLaughlin and other instructors, the agriculture department has made much progress. This year much new equipment has been added to the dairy and much canning is being done. Scholarships have been offered in Animal Husbandry, and two new instructors have been added to the staff.

The following new equipment has been added to the college dairy: A bottle washer, homogenizer, foller, coppercoller, and

Paragraphics

Hats off to the seniors counsellors Gwen Peterson, Rosa Lee Sowell, Alvin Blount, The Waddell Twins, and Jessie Frances, with the kind help of Miss Clift and Mr. Gamble, for such swell freshman jollification.

A contrast—There is a Dorothy Jones on the campus this year. She is very quiet. . . .

There are plenty of new students on the campus, this year. Take your pick, girls and boys. Theodore Wells is doing all right.

Well older girls, Uncle Sam has taken all the older fellows, so now you have to learn to like children. Have you ever seen such young fellows in all your life. Well girls, I'm still around for a while anyway.

May we take the opportunity to extend our best wishes to our new coaches. Coach Deberry we are with you all the way for you have A. and T. blood in you. Coach Morrow, we like you, too.

Now that football season has started, let us go to all the games with plenty of spirit. A good sport is one who cheers at all times. So team go out there, and fight like General MacArthur.

Some under-graduates whom we all miss this year are: Thomas Simmons, Arthur Gooden, Lorenzo Collins, Sam Ford, Juanita Johnson, Frankie Whitehead, and Bernice Newby. Wherever you are, hurry back.

Our new faculty members, seem to be all right, so far. Let's hope they stay that way. They're almost as nice as our old teachers. (I don't mean old age.)

Girls don't change Misses Clift, and Simmon's opinion of you. Please be nice for they are so nice themselves.

Freshmen and new men, all A. and T. men stand when young ladies come to the table and help them with their trays. Have you noticed?

Just because there is a shortage on silk, doesn't mean that young ladies may come to dinner on Sundays without stockings.

It is understood that all freshmen want to be on the cheering squad. Everyone can't be cheerleaders, but all can cheer.

So glad to see so many of A. and T's Alumni on the faculty it gives us all something to look forward to.

In case you don't know, we stand at attention when we sing our alma mater. Some people have been seen to be moving about. In case it is not sacred to you, it is to so many of us. So don't disturb us when we sing it.

Let's all get some spirit for our team, when we go to a game. Please don't walk out before the game is over.

National and Otherwise

By J. Floyd Lovell

With the ousting of Talmadge from the Governorship of Georgia, an affront to our democratic conscience has been assuaged. But what is American democracy after all? It is:

Talmadge pulling on red suspenders and telling
Negroes to do as told or get out;
Father Divine and his angels invading exclusive white districts with shouts of 'peace';
MacLean denouncing discrimination;
Louis risking his crown for army and navy relief;
The Cardinals versus the Yankees;
It's WPB, FEPC, OCD, OWI, etc., etc., etc.
It's ice-cream cones, hot dogs and cakes
It's Negro, Jap, German, Pole, Chink, French, African, Jew, me, you;
It's LIFE. . . .

That last is democracy. In spite of the seeming cumbersome disorganization—democracy is the American expression of living a simple good life, the ultimate view of all the individual and collective efforts of humanity (Discount Hitler and his gang; they're inhuman.)

Said of a professor: "He has a sense of humor as arid as the Sahara."

What to expect in a boy's dormitory room: Wholesome disarray.

author these lines, they, nevertheless, form a mouthful of food for thought for most of us students. Now is the time, at the very beginning of the school year, for us to take inventory of ourselves. Now is the time to plot our course, decide our direction.

If our purpose here is to make the most of this opportunity that is ours, then let us establish that purpose firmly in our minds, so that when there is a tendency to deviate from the plotted course, our conscience "will prick us."

During times of national crisis, a tremendous responsibility is placed upon the shoulders of the students and they must be prepared to accept that responsibility with confidence. The highest personal integrity is demanded and the student must be prepared to give just that.

Sacrifice is our word. Sacrifice our belongings, our time and ourselves. Total war means total sacrifice and we are waging a total war.

So the challenge is ours. When this 'day' passes again into the eternity from whence it came, let us look back and remember it not as one of physical sacrifice but spiritual abundance—and abundance that grows out of knowing that you have done your bit, and all because you made right plans beforehand.

To The Freshmen

The Register wishes to extend to each of you a hearty welcome into our midst and at the same time congratulates you on being fortunate enough to come to A. and T. You are entering upon an experience which is entirely new. There are adjustments that you have already made and many more that you will be making as time passes. We hope that you will take the adjustments in their stride and not make an issue out of trifling matters. Yet at the same time, don't take college too lightly. It is of the utmost importance now that you finish your college career at the most in four years and it is highly desirable that you finish it sooner than that if possible.

Always make your schedule out with care. A good rule to follow is to take as many required subjects as possible and the electives will automatically fill in, as time passes.

As first quarter Freshmen, do not put too much emphasis upon extra-curricular and social activities but rather show your worth in one field first and all the others will open up to you. Your best and most reliable method of proving yourself not just another student is through scholarship. And scholarship in algebra can not be acquired at the movies or playing cards. Let first things come first and second things come second. That is to say, if you can't play cards and study algebra both, leave off the one of the lesser importance.

Remember that it is a wonderful opportunity that you have—one that comes once a life time. A good slogan to keep in mind is: Anything worth doing at all is worth doing well. Again, we welcome you.

ROTC Swings Into Action

The senior unit of the ROTC which was established on the campus by the war department last April is swinging into shape in a military fashion under the able direction of Lieutenant Colonel Edwards and his two First Lieutenants, A. W. Ferguson and J. C. Harlan.

Four companies of cadets reported the first week totaling 485. Olive drab uniforms with blue lapel were issued to the cadets. An announcement of the temporary appointment of cadet officers was also made.

The cadet officers roster of the companies follows:

Company A

Company commander, 1st Lieutenant Andrew Best; Second in command, 2nd Lieut. Duncan L. Williams; 1st Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Lenord C. Rohr; 2nd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. James Garrett; 3rd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Walter Hamilton.

Company B

Company commander, 1st Lieut. Bill Lee; Second in Command, 2nd Lieut. Lorenzo Powers; 1st Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Byrd Camp; 2nd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Lewis Morris; 3rd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Sinclair McCorkle.

Company C

Company commander, 1st Lieut. Hubert S. Gaskin, Jr.; Second in Command, 2nd Lieut. James Burney; 1st Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Ralph Mason; 2nd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Johnny Peterson; 3rd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Melvin Alexander.

Company D

Company commander, 1st Lieut. Joseph Threadgill; Second in Command, 2nd Lieut. Samuel Brooks; 1st Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Louis Tann; 2nd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Grady Smith and 3rd Platoon Leader, 2nd Lieut. Marion George.

From "Miss A. and T."

To the Freshman Class:
It is not only a pleasure, but an honor that I have the privilege to welcome you to our beloved campus. It is with high esteem that I perform this task.

You are about to tread the path which so many successful young men and women have trod. I am hoping that your journey has been well planned, and that each of you will begin it with vim and vigor, trying to attain the best that our A. and T. can afford scholastically and morally.

Let this institution grow bigger and better because each of you has a definite contribution to make.

On behalf of the student body, I welcome you.

Chatterbox

Ladies and gentlemen, the reporter for the Chatterbox is on his "p's" and "q's." So don't be surprised if he gets you.

To start with: I hope all of the freshmen will have a successful year and good luck to all the upperclassmen.

G. White says he is strictly a B. C. man since J. Dupree broke his heart.

I hear B. Holley and J. (red) Holley are finally rivals over B. C.

Miss L. McGee seems to have put Miss R. Sowell on the turf. Oh, B. Perry is the lover.

Is it true that Miss Diggs got married on Mr. E. George? He sure seems lonesome.

The occupants of room 19 M. H. declare they are hard. For whom—Uncle Sam?

Slim Jones is out of the reach of Uncle Sam. He was rejected on account of his height. Jeanette is all smiles.

"Pops" is gone, but we've got "daddy."

Why doesn't somebody "hep" Ed Allen. He ain't so cute.

POEM:

EPITAPH:

Here lies the body of Jake
McLust—
His pistol snapped;
He bit the dust!
(P.S.) He's still chewing.

Speaking of rationing—looks like most of our '42 coeds got here minus gas, tires and even presentable chassis.

Wonder what's gonna become of Sophomore girls who try to "jive" senior men.

John Johnson is really in there. Seems as though he said to Lucy: "We could make such beautiful music together." They are both in the choir.

Clare Turner has her "B.S." degree already.

a new ice cream plant installed. The new building is now being used and the old one is being used for the making of ice cream. This new ice cream plant is now producing about fifteen gallons per day. The dairy plans to supply the dining hall with both milk and ice cream, but is finding it somewhat of a problem at the present, because of the effect that the gastation period has upon milk production.

The College is also doing much canning this year. About 4,000 quarts of apples, 1,600 quarts of peaches, and many hundred quarts of beans, tomatoes, squash, and okra have been canned. Much work is being done toward the preservation of the present supply of fruit and fruit trees.

A. and T. Art Graduate Paints Murals at Camp Walters, Texas

Private Garret Whyte, graduated from A. and T. College with a B. S. in Art in the class of '39. Since graduation he has been on the Art Staff of the Journal and Guide and Louisville Defender. At the time of his induction in the Army he was being considered for a position as a staff artist for a white daily in Louisville, Kentucky. His large mural was a Government commission executed for the Recreation Hall at Camp Walters, Texas. It is approximately seven by sixteen feet and depicts the training cycle of an infantry soldier. Mr. Whyte writes that he is to paint other smaller murals for the camp where he is now stationed.

While a student at the college Mr. Whyte planned and executed two large murals for the college dining hall entitled "Thank God For The Crops" and "Men In Industry." He was also Art

Editor of The Register while an undergraduate.

The Register wishes to congratulate Mr. Whyte on his fine work and wishes for him continued success. Congratulations are also in order to our efficient Art Director, Prof. H. Clinton Taylor in whose department Mr. Whyte did his major work.

during the history of this institution, scholarships were given to six boys in Animal Husbandry. The purpose of these scholarships is to create or encourage interest in doing. These six boys are now taking one year of short courses in doing this.

The Horticulture Department is now headed by Professor J. W. R. Grandy. He received his B. S. degree here and has done special work in landscape design, vegetable, and fruit growing at Cornell University. Professor Grandy states, "Due to the present world's crisis, the government is asking for an increase in the production of food."

A Drunkard's Psalm

Alcohol is my shepherd, I shall not want.
It maketh me to lie down in dark alleys
It leadeth me beside the ABC store;
It runneth my soul;
It leadeth me in the paths of drunkards for its name sake.
Yea, though I walk through the alleys in the shadows of distilleries,

I will fear no police,
For the majority is with me.
The law and the people protecteth me;
They prepare a saloon before me in the presence of mine enemies;
They anoint my thought with liquor;
My ear turneth over.
Surely, sorrow and sadness shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in hell forever.

The Moocher

The clock says it's now five fifteen.
He's late, and you know what that means.
The supper line is long and slow,
He's hungry, he must eat and go.

Thinking not of those back in line
Those hungry friends of his behind,
He stops before he gets inside
And sees a place where he can slide.

He waits till no one's looking, then
With half a frown and half a grin,
He dashes mally into life
And swears he's been there all the time.

They say that if he'll "mooch" he'll steal.
What was one a gentleman, is now a heel.
But it's just that they don't understand
What beans can do to change a man.

'Tis hard for me to judge this guy,
Who merely wants what he has to buy
For he knows that if he goes through last,
Eating is just a thing of the past.

So before you try to mooch again,
Think first of your poor starving friend.
He's been in line and needs a rest
So why not mooch a little less.

Reflections From "Undertones"

A volume of verse by
J. FLOYD LOVELL

"To Have You Near"

To have you near
Is all I ask of life,
I'd lift my head; I'd welcome each new day
I'd know no cancerous pain.

To have you near
Would make me man again,
I'd lift my head; I'd welcome each new day
I'd know no cancerous pain.

To have you near,
Though once we quarreled oft,
Would life my dreary reminiscent song,
Would rend my soul aloft.

To have you near
All that agony I knew
I'd welcome back; for in that bitter ache,
I knew delicious sweetness too.

But you are gone,
I'll no more know the thrill,
The tingling thrill your tender husky voice,
Did once in me instill.

DEDICATION

This little violet I dedicate to you,
Little though it be, it is symbolic of that profusion of ecstasy and love that I knew with you.

Like your smile—its hue is never a thing definite—but a shade lighter, a shade darker,
I kiss those delicate, sweet-scented petals and thrill to the tenderness of your lips.

Accept this little token as commemorating an interval of brightness, brief, but breathlessly sweet, in an existence that was profoundly appreciative.

Pyramid Club

The Pyramid Club of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority opened again this year with great ambition and enthusiasm. They have planned a large and interesting program for the year.

We are sorry that two of our beloved sisters, Misses Elizabeth Diggs and Susie Staton are not with us. We are glad to know that they are doing well, however.

One of our sisters, Miss Jean Watson, is answering the call of National Defense. She is leaving for Washington this week to begin work as senior typist.

The Officers of the Pyramid Club are: president, Miss Ruby Boone; vice president, Miss Elizabeth Green; secretary, Miss Ruth Dupree; corresponding secretary, Miss Goldie Moore; treasurer, Miss Georgia Heard. The members are: Misses Augusta Allen, Jeanette Alston, Emma Boone, Willia B. Jones, Bette Simmons, Sarah Washington, Jean Watson, Juanita Wharton and Willia B. Eaton.

Our Dean of Pledges is Big Sister Carolyn Wood.

Beta Epsilon

The brothers of Beta Epsilon want to welcome to the campus first of all, the class of '46, which seems to have some of the best material of any freshman class in many years. Within the membership of this class is the winner of the scholarship given by Kappa Lambda and Beta Epsilon Chapters of A. Phi A. This talented young man is Mr. James Russell of Dudley High School, Greensboro, and one of the most outstanding students of Guilford County.

The chapter wishes to welcome to the institution Mr. Edward N. Palmer and Mr. Charles G. Colman, new members of the faculty who are also members of the Fraternity.

Since last year Uncle Sam has taken many from our fold. In the army are Brothers Edward Dowden, Eugene Henderson, Eugene Marrow, and Walter Oldham. Brother Filmore Haith represents Beta Epsilon in the navy. From the Sphinx Club the Army has taken Edward N. Smith and James Samuels, and the Navy has taken Lewis Jenkins. We wish these boys all the luck in the world.

Garrett Whyte, a former member of Beta Epsilon, has recently won recognition for a mural which he painted for the recreational hall at Camp Walters, Texas. A photograph of this painting appears in this issue of The Register.

We should like to end this by wishing all the students of A. and T. the most successful year of any in the history of the school.

Pan-Hellenic Council

The Pan-Hellenic Council, composed of members of all Greek-letter organizations, here on the campus, takes this time to welcome freshmen and former students back to school.

We sincerely wish all students, especially freshmen, a highly successful school year at A. and T. College. Let us ask of you, your cooperation and spirit that will be needed more than ever during the increasing dark days that this war is bringing upon us. We also wish you success in your studies and other accomplishments.

The officers for this year are: Alvin V. Blount, president; J. Floyd Lovell, secretary; C. Russell Wyrick, treasurer; Barbara U. Canada, parliamentarian.

Under the leadership of the above mentioned persons, we hope to do great things.

The council wishes also to congratulate Mr. Broadus E. Sawyer for winning the scholarship which we gave.

Delta Sigma Theta—

The Alpha Mu Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority of A. and T. College extends greetings to all Freshmen and new comers to our campus.

We will reach our goals under the guidance of the following officers for the school year of 1942-43.

Katherine Howard, president; Carolyn Woods, vice president and dean of pledges; Rosa Lee Sowell, corresponding secretary; Ellen Reeves, treasurer; Maude Shepperson, sergeant-at-arms; Lula McNeill, recording secretary; Louise Penn, reporter; Miss E. M. Gibbs, Adviser.

Sorors Whitehead and Newby have deemed it necessary to join in the nation-wide defense program; nevertheless, we extend to them greetings from the campus as well as from the sorority.

While the flag of crimson and cream is flying, we will strive to keep Delta dynamic.

Choral Society

Lois McGhee, Reporter

The choral society is back on the march again and you will be seeing those blue robes with gold trimmings on the stage of Harrison Auditorium more often this year due to the fact that gasoline and tires are hard to obtain. They are looking forward to another successful year under the direction of our new and most capable director, Mr. Charles Coleman.

Mr. Coleman is from Lawrenceburg, Kentucky and is a graduate of Fisk University. Before coming to A. and T., he was music director at Dillard University, New Orleans, La. As an introduction to the student body and faculty, Mr. Coleman has submitted the following statement: "In these our times, it is fervently hoped that the youth of America will follow their natural bet and sing. A singing youth reflects a healthful point of view in their reaction to life as they find it. Music is one art in which all persons may participate and share in the creation of beauty. Virtually everyone is able to carry a tune and may participate by singing in unison if not trained to sing in parts. This may be made one of the unifying factors in our college community life.

"Here at A. and T., as at most college communities, we have the opportunity to make a distinctive contribution to the happiness and mental and spiritual elevation of the youth of our country. Through our choral organization, our band, and our complete participation in assembly singing, we can do our part to foster music's greatest significance—"To be enjoyed."

The new members of the choral society are as follows: Col-

The Ivy Leaf Pledge Club to the Alpha Phi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority extends a hearty welcome to the new members of the A. and T. family. We wish for them a successful year and hope that they as well as the rest of the student body will make the most of this opportunity to acquire greater knowledge that is availed them.

Officers for this year are as follows: president, Annie Collier; secretary, Ruby Press; and treasurer, Julia Johnson. We hope to be successful in the carrying out of our plans for the coming year.

The Scroller Script

The Scroller Club wishes to welcome the freshman class and we hope that you will find our dear Alma Mater a pleasant place. We hope you will live up to the high standards which this institution encourages.

During these times every young lady and gentleman must try to strive for an education, which will help to build up the Negro race and the Nation. We sincerely trust that you, the members of the class of '46, will make a pledge for the upbuilding of our race by exhibiting your loyalty and service to your fellowman.

The officers for the year 1942 are as follows: Brothers Edward Allen, president; Steve Waltz, vice president; Samuel Reed, secretary; George Tillet, assistant secretary; Earl Johnson, treasurer; James Graham, chaplain; Samuel Brooks, sergeant-at-arms; Henry H. Joyner, reporter.

The members who returned are as follows: Brothers Tom Sawyer, Clifton Howell, John Alston, Clemmon Jacob, William Bristow, John Forte, John Gibson, Carl Manuel, Marion Hillard, Johnny Peterson Bill Lee, Need Gee.

Omega Chapter

Mu Psi Fraters of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity have returned to dear ol' A. and T., fresh from the exploitation of other soils, particularly that that was financially exuberating. They have renewed their efforts to forge onward and make the best of their educational opportunity while here, and will carry on fraternally under the guiding light of the following newly elected officers: James Reeves, basileus; Henry Ellison, vice basileus; Lewis Morris, K. R. S.; Clarence Bond, treasurer; Alphonzo Williams, vice K. R. S.; George Miller, dean of pledges.

The fraternal body includes: Emmett George, William Perry, Edward Booth, Albert Jones, Hubert Gaskin, Theodore Wells, Russell Wyrick, George McDaniels and Robert Carlos. The absent Brothers of last school-year are accounted for as follows: Gibbs, Jr., Navy Band; L. Miller, Army; R. Harper, Army; Kearney, Defense industry; Schoeffner, Defense industry; S. Fowler, Railway Mail Clerk; J. Vinson of "An-his-Sisters-An-his- Brothers-an-his-Cousins-an-his-Aunts" fame is the only Brother from whom we haven't heard.

For Brothers here and there we sound the Q's inspirational yell—"Let's Go, Omega!" "Let's Go!"

The Sphinx Club

William Gunn, Reporter

"Hello, everybody" . . . This is the Sphinx Club's salutation to the new year.

A number of our brothers did not return for various reasons. They are: Bro. Kenneth Page, who is working in Gary, W. Va.; Bros. George Wyatt and Frank Graves, both of Jersey, (incidentally, Bro. Graves is married. Did you see his picture in a recent issue of the New Jersey Herald News); Bro. Lewis Jenkins, who is now serving in the Navy and Bros. James Samuels, Edward N. Smith and William King, all of whom are in the Army. Brother Smith is at Camp Belvoir, Va.; Brother Samuels at Fort Bragg, N. C.; and Brother King at Camp Lee, Va.

At our first meeting, Bro. Byers, president, relinquished his duties for this quarter to Bro. Rousseau, vice president. Byers is leaving soon for Washington, D. C.

We have our club streamlines to meet the times and our motto is "All out for Alpha and for victory."

KAPPA KOMMENTS

Alpha Nu Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity wishes to extend greetings to freshmen and new students who have joined into the family of A. and T., and wishes the best achievement for all students. The members of the good old clan have returned once again to do a good job for our dear Alma Mater. Many of the good brothers have had very good vacations at work and in school. Many of the brothers remained on A. and T.'s campus and maintained activity of the chapter all of the summer with Brother George W. White acting as polemarch in the absence of Brother Alvin V. Blount, Jr. Other brothers remaining were Brothers Herman Holley, Daniels, and Williams with a group of pledge brothers. Their work was indeed done well.

The officers are: Alvin V. Blount, Jr., polemarch; Leonard C. Cooper, vice-polemarch; Joseph W. Leonard, keeper of records; George W. White, Jr., strategus; Melvin T. Alexander, Lieut. strategus; Herman W. Holley, acting historian-reporter; Claude P. Daniels, keeper of exchequer. Other members who have returned are Brothers Robert Wilson, Matthew Jarmond, Booker T. McNeill, Walter Foster and Walter Hamilton.

It is the chapter's sincere hope that each brother will do his part for America by putting all of his time to the best use and to give his support to the school in every manner, to perform his duty to his country, his state, his community, his home and always remember his duty to his fellowman. To all A. and T. students, and those concerned we, again, extend happy greetings for a good and progressive school year. Remember we are concerned with the war effort; let us do our part here on the home front by using that energy for the best.

Yours for success,
HERMAN W. HOLLEY
Acting Kommentator

The ... "Ay-'n-Tea"

RAMBLER

Yes, folks the Rambling reporter returns to the scene of "yesterday's" exploits enthusiastic about again bringing to the attention of your "visual-interpreters" the incidental and co-incidental happenings that affect life at A. and T.

Your first query must have been "Where are our 'missing' fellow students"? Well, here I go with as much as I know.

Arthur Gooden and James Davis are doing there "bit" at Camp Butler. Lewis Still is "sprouting" secondary wings at Tuskegee.

Sam Bruce, also of A. and T. football is "sitting-tight" at the great Negro "101st" pursuit squadron headquarters, waiting for the orders that may send him to distant shores in defense of the U. S. A. and its Allies.

William (Charlottesville) Brown is "doing-his-bit" as hash-slinger for the Southern Railway. Should I have said "chef"? Let's hope that this former "great" A. and T. "back" returns to display that versatile prowess that made him a triple-threat.

President Bluford made this remark after witnessing the A. and T.-Florida classic October 3rd: "In spite of our defeat, our team displayed the brand of football that even this early marks it as one of the best aggregations we've had, here, in a long time!"

Head Coach DeBerry's staff composed of assistant Coaches Morrow, King, and Clarke, is a well-operated, smooth-and-ad-equate-functioning Unit. Each member has his definite responsibility and carries it out with the thoroughness that is so necessary to success. We salute you, Mr. DeBerry, for your strategic generalship of your team "a great one" through your coaching unit.

Listen, football fans, "get this"—No football team is better than its "forward wall" commonly called the shock-absorber or wedge-opener. Yes, a good "line" is the immediate "success-factor." Yet, when we "unhept" fans size-up a ball game we give all the praise to the "ball carriers" and forget the stout linesmen who made the "holes" in the opponent line that spelled the five or ten yard gain, or, on the defensive, "surged" into the opponent backfield to upset the enemy ball-carrier. Now, since we know this, let's "come-on" with great praise for our stellar linesmen who, twice, with their backs against our goal line kept the "Rattler" from making a one yard "touchdown" advance. The men who comprise Coach DeBerry's air-conditioned, "air-tight" line are: flanking the ends—Smith, Gearing, Banner—

In the guard spots—Woods, Rowe, Early, Lee—

In tackle: Wilson, Williams (Joe), Lynn—

In the pivot (center) "Andy Pandey Pryor" Monteiro (Ju-Ju) Will you forget the "line" when you're dishing-out your A. and T. "good-play" or "victory Praise bonuses?"

Don't forget to support your cheer leaders. The teams with the best cheering-sections usually acquire the most victories at home or "abroad."

Eleven New Members Added To Faculty

College of Education and Science Receives Six

The faculty has been bolstered by ten additions or replacements. The College of Education and Science received the greater portion of the ten. The school of Agriculture received two new members while the technical department received one. Already the new members are going about their work as veterans.

The following is a list of the new members:

Miss Mildred Ann Clift—Dean of women and instructor of education, received her M. S. in education at the University of Indiana. She has done additional graduate work at the University of Michigan. Miss Clift comes to us from Indiana where she has been teaching.

Miss Margaret A. Simmons—Did undergraduate work at Barber Scotia College and her graduate work at New York University. She taught at the Gillespie Institute in Cordele, Georgia. She is assistant Dean of Women and Instructor of History here.

Mr. Rudolph Grandy—A graduate of A. and T., is now instructor of Horticulture. Mr. Grandy taught at Southern University year before last. Last year he did graduate work at Cornell University.

Mr. Charles U. Deberry—Another graduate of A. and T. and is now head coach and instructor of physical education. He is a Sigma and did graduate work at New York University, receiving the M. S. degree in physical education.

Mr. Archibald Morrow—Assistant Coach and also instructor of physical education. He too, is an alumnus of A. and T. College. Mr. Morrow did his graduate work at Columbia where he received the M. S. degree.

Dr. C. J. Spellman—A graduate of, and former teacher of A. and T. College. He taught here from 1932 through 1936. From then until 1940 Dr. Spellman was county agent in Wilson County.

He received his Ph. D. in Agricultural Education from Cornell. Dr. Spellman is now teaching agronomy.

Mr. Nelson Palmer—Instructor of sociology and economics. He received his master's degree at the University of Michigan. He did further study at the University of Michigan, and research in sociology at Fisk University. Mr. Palmer is an Alpha.

Miss Lunabelle Wedlock—Is taking Dr. Low's position and is a graduate of Howard University. She also received her master's degree at Howard and has done further study toward her Ph. D. She is instructor of history.

Miss Veda J. Spellman—Is now instructor of commercial education. Miss Spellman is a graduate of A. and T. College and was formerly Dean Gibb's secretary.

Mr. Westerband—A graduate of West Virginia State College is the new superintendent of the buildings.

Mr. H. R. Arnette—Of the department of education who was absent last year for graduate study at the University of Pennsylvania has returned.

Mr. Dalrymple Synette—A graduate of A. and T., is now teaching Brick Masonry. Mr. Synette comes to us from Charlotte.

QUESTION: What impressed you most upon your arrival at A. and T.?

1. Name: Catherine Richardson
Home: Charlotte, N. C.
Favorite Building: Holland Hall.

I was very deeply impressed with the profound brotherly and sisterly feeling exhibited among the students. I was fully aware of the traditional initiations meted out to all freshmen and was found ready to take my share. The campus life presented here is of the kind that makes me feel very much at home.

2. Name: Avery Louise Jeffries
Home: Burlington, N. C.
Favorite Building: Dudley

The A. and T. campus impressed me most upon my arrival. I have found the students a very likable group of people who have been cordial to me in every possible way.

3. Name: Mae Shepard Richardson
Home: Wadesboro, N. C.
Favorite Building: Crosby Hall.

I was mostly impressed by the accelerated educational plan which was orientated into the school plan this year. This plan enables a student to finish his college training within a period of three (3) years.

4. Name: Isabel Thomas
Home: Lexington, N. C.
Favorite Building: Holland Hall.

I think that A. and T. is a very nice school. I found the upperclassmen ready and willing to help me follow the correct routine as far as possible. On the whole, I have enjoyed my stay here very much.

5. Name: Kenneth Rogers
Home: Conway, S. C.
Favorite Building: Graham Building.

I was very impressed with the military course offered at A. and T. The military course here is sufficient and adequate enough to insure me a position in the U. S. Army other than a buck private.

6. Name: Louise Jones
Home: Salem, Va.
Favorite Building: R. B. Harrison Auditorium.

So far I have found A. and T. much to my liking. There are a very fine group of students attending the institution

Technical Department

By Marion J. Hilliard

We are now beginning a new year. Some of us are old and some are new. We have all entered this institution with a solemn pledge. That pledge is to be educated and devote that education to the aid of our country. For deep down in us there is a remembrance that there is a war being fought and a war to be won. A war that must be won not only by men who carry arms of war, and men who die on what was at one time called a battlefield. The phrase, at one time, was used because battles are not fought only on fields but in cities, and homes.

Therefore, with a full understanding of these facts it is not hard to understand why there is a great need of technically trained men who will undertake the gigantic task of building material machines, guns, and other implements that are necessary for a complete victory.

To the Freshman class, we of the technical department welcome you. We sincerely hope that your stay here will be as successful as the other students of the technical department who have gone on before you. We also hope that upon entering a particular field you will pick the field that you feel that you are best talented, and not enter a field because your friend, John Doe, was in that particular field and made good. You are now college students; therefore, it is expected of college students to think for themselves.

The Register Quizzes The E. R. A.

However, no qualified student will be denied enlistment in the Army Air Corps Enlisted Reserve. Quotas will be increased if necessary for such enlistments.

Q—Are students taking ROTC training eligible for enlistment in Army Air Corps Enlisted Reserve?

A—Yes. Any student taking basic ROTC training may be enlisted in the Army Air Corps Enlisted Reserve as a prospective Aviation Cadet.

Q—Are students of all four college classes eligible for enlistment?

A—Yes, for the calendar year, 1942. After 1942, freshmen only are eligible for enlistment within the allotted quota. Sophomores may be enlisted without regard to quota at any time for specific purpose of taking Advanced ROTC Training.

Q—Are students at an institution maintaining compulsory military training eligible for enlistment in the Army ERC for the expressed purpose of reserving them for enlistment in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve at a later date?

A—Yes, freshmen and sophomores for this year and thereafter, freshmen only. Such students will be discharged by the Army upon their own application, for the purpose of enlisting in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve upon completion of the sophomore year.

Q—What procedure is necessary to discharge a member of the Army ERC who has completed his sophomore year, for the purpose of enlisting in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve?

A—Request should be made to the Service Commander stating that the Reservist was enlisted in the Army ERC for the specific purpose of reserving him for enlistment in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve.

Q—May students who have been enlisted in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve and who enter an institution having compulsory military training, be enlisted in the Army ERC?

A—Yes, upon discharge from the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve. Such students will be discharged from the Army ERC upon completion of the sophomore year for the purpose of again enlisting in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve.

Q—What procedure is necessary for the discharge of a member of the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve for the purpose of enlisting in the Army ERC?

A—Request should be submitted to Fourth Service Command Navy Representative, Lt. Commander A. H. Donaldson, USNR, Room 905 Langford Building, 121 S. E. First Street, Miami, Florida.

Q—Are students taking Pre-medical or Pre-dental eligible for such enlistment?

A—Yes. Such student will be discharged from the Army ERC upon completion of Pre-medical or Pre-dental course and upon being accepted by an approved school of medicine or dentistry, at which time he will be commissioned a 2nd Lieut. in the Medical Administrative Corps.

Q—May a student selected for Advanced ROTC who has not previously enlisted, be enlisted in the Army ERC?

A—Yes, without regard to quota.

Q—Who may accomplish enlistments in the Army ERC?

A—Institutions maintaining ROTC, the P. M. S. & T's. At institutions not maintaining ROTC, Recruiting Agencies previously announced for each institution. In addition, a Recruiting Party will visit all institutions shortly after departure of Presentation Boards for the purpose of accomplishing enlistments on the campuses.

Q—Are students with minor physical defects barred from enlisting in the Army ERC?

A—No, provided a waiver of such defects is granted by Headquarters Fourth Service Command.

Q—On what basis are Junior College Students eligible for enlistment in the Army ERC?

A—Only if they agree to enter an approved senior institution, upon graduation, for completion of their college training.

DEFERMENTS:

Q—What is the maximum period for which a student may be deferred?

A—A student may not be deferred for a period longer than four years, or for a period in excess of the time required to complete a four year college course.

Q—Is a student in college where both accelerated and normal programs are offered, required to take the accelerated program?

A—No. He may elect to take either program.
